The book is divided into 10 sections, each dealing with a specific aspect of children's rhymes such as lullabies, activities such as dressing, washing, etc., finger games and so on. There is an index of first lines and the pieces are cross-referenced. An invaluable addition to the pre-school and infant library.

BURNS, Robert. The selected poems of Robert Burns, edited with an introduction by David Daiches. Fontana/Collins, 1980. 144 p. $4.50.

This pleasant paperback (of a new 1979 hard-bound selection) reached me almost the same day as the poster and notice of the Melbourne Robert Burns Club 1980 Competition arrived at school, and it could well be added to the recommended bibliography. Many of Burns's best-loved poems are here, including songs, satires and verse letters. Unguessable words are translated at the side of the page. The cover is attractive.

Burns himself would have been wryly amused, being given to satire, that David Daiches the editor has printed his own (excellent, yes) introduction in 10 point type while the poems themselves are set in 9 pt.

The Burns Competition is for 12-14 year olds: the book's for them — and for a' wi' Scots bluid.
